

"TELL MY FRIENDS TO BE BRAVE AND FEARLESS, AND LOYAL TO THE GREAT COMMON PEOPLE."

CONWAY

William Woods is surveying the Conway Lumber Co's tract of land. Willie Johnston has about recovered from an attack of typhoid fever.

Mrs. G. W. Jones has been very sick, but is some better at this writing.

Billy Frank Lambert and wife returned Saturday, from a visit to relatives at Lilly.

W. T. Woodall has sold his farm to Mr. Callahan, of this place, consideration $300.00.

The hunters from Richmond have returned to their several homes well laden with game.

Mrs. E. Hill, of the Scaffold Cane neighborhood, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jones.

Henry Thomas, an old soldier of the civil war, and also a pensioner, died last night. Thus, one by one the old veterans are passing over stepping stone between time and eternity.

Matt Coffey has sold his farm near Conway, to Mr. Pullins from Madison county, for which he received $900.00 in cash. Mr. Coffey has not yet decided whether he will go to Illinois or remain in old Rockcastle.

Your correspondent from this place requested me to assume the responsibilities and liabilities of such until his return from Boyle county, where he and P. T. McGuire have gone to purchase some blooded stock.

The oil well on Copper creek is going down into the bosom of old mother earth rather slowly, owing to the extreme hardness of the formation. Quite a supply of gas (not surface gas) but real "simon-pure" gas is escaping from the well.

"Uncle" Harrison Haggard (colored), of Scaffold Cane, died Thursday night last and was buried in the old church grave yard Friday. He was a unique character and his cheerful, good-natured laugh and odd expressions will be remembered by all who knew him for years to come. He was a soldier in the civil war and was drawing a pension.

Gov. Beckham's Thanksgiving proclamation:

"I appoint Thursday, November 28, 1901, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer throughout the Commonwealth. It is fitting that on such occasions the people should pause and contemplate the wonderful growth and development of our country, and should give grateful thanks to Almighty God, who has so blessed and favored us. Not in a spirit of national arrogance or boastful supremacy, but as humble and thankful recognition of Divine Providence, let us ask for a continuation of those blessings and bounties so generously bestowed upon us in the past, and let us show our gratitude, not alone by expressions of mouth, but also by deeds of the heart, in extending charity and kindness to the poor and needy among us.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the Commonwealth to be hereunto affixed.

Done at Frankfort, this eighteenth day of November, nineteen hundred and one, and the one hundred and tenth year of the Commonwealth. By the Governor.

J. C. W. BECKHAM.
HARRY G. TANDY, Assistant Secretary of State.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by all Druggists.

LEVEL GREEN

Preaching last Sunday by Rev. D. R. Gentry at the Christian church or as Rev. Davis would say, "the Church of Christ," but really I see but little or no difference in the two applications; in either case it must undoubtedly mean Christ's Church. Before preaching Elder Gentry administered the "ordination" of baptism to three young converts, altho' this was his first attempt yet he performed it like a veteran, notwithstanding the water was covered with ice.

We have nothing sensational to chronicle at this writing. The partridge hunters donned uniforms Friday and with guns and dogs, they filled the air with a sound not very unlike the skirmishing of two armies, but lo, and behold, when the nimrods went forth on Saturday they met more "Post Boards" than free hunting grounds. Our people have determined that the birds shall be protected from the hand of the merciless sportsman and this is right. Let them multiply and help replenish the earth.

Trade in all kinds of stock is at a perfect standstill, nothing selling but chickens, geese, turkeys and ducks.

Schools are nearing a "round up," but the old time exhibition with speech, song, banjo and fiddle and so forth, will be conspicuously absent. These things were wonderful "draw backs" to our public schools and should never have been tolerated.

We stated in our last article that Prof. Teague, of N. C., would be associated with us in our school, beginning January 1st. We ask space by way of advertisement to again say that he will be with us and that he is competent to teach Latin, Book-keeping and all the higher mathematics in addition to the common school branches. Those preparing for examination will find it to be to their especial advantage to attend our school. Board and tuition unusually cheap. Those wishing to avail themselves of these opportunities should apply for board at once.

Adjoining Counties.

Caldwell College at Danville has been closed for a short time on account of scarlet fever.

The eighth annual meeting of the National Fox-hunters Association was begun at Irvine Tuesday.

Mrs. T. P. Hill, wife of Col. T. P. Hill, of Stanford, died Saturday after an illness of several months, at the age of 70.

Coal oil has been found in Wayne county at a depth of only 530 feet. The well is being put down by the McConnaghy Oil Company, which is composed of Danville men.

The Court of Appeals overruled a motion for a new hearing in the case of Reubin Quinn, the negro who killed Policeman John T. Crum in Danville last April. Quinn was given a death sentence and the day for the execution will be set by Gov. Beckham.

ASTOUNDING DISCOVERY.

From Coopersville, Mich., comes word of a wonderful discovery of a pleasant tasting liquid that when used before retiring by any one troubled with a bad cough always ensures a good night's rest. "It will soon cure the cough too," writes Mrs. S. Himelburger, "for three generations of our family have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and never found its equal for Coughs and Colds." It's an unrivaled life-saver when used for desperate lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00 at all Druggists. Trial bottles free.

ASTHMALENE BRINGS INSTANT RELIEF
And Permanent Cure in All Cases.

SENT ABSOLUTELY FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL.

THERE is nothing like Asthma. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The Rev. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthma. I received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

WE want to send to every sufferer a trial treatment of ASTHMALENE, similar to the one that cured Mr. Wells. We'll send it by mail POSTPAID, ABSOLUTELY FREE OF CHARGE, to any sufferer who will write for it, even on a postal. Never mind how you are despairing, however bad your case, ASTHMALENE will relieve and cure. The worse your case, the more glad we are to send it. Do not delay. Write at once, addressing DR. THE editor of this paper had a most delightful trip last week to Nashville, "the Athens of the South." Going over the L. & N. we made the entire trip most pleasantly in 9 hours, a distance of 314 miles. The L. & N.'s fast train makes splendid time and has every accommodation for the comfort of its passengers. Nashville is a great city of 80,000 inhabitants. It has one of the handsomest depots in the South. The capitol buildings are of great interest to visitors and situated on a very imposing site. 1800 convicts are in the penitentiary with only 22 guards to prevent escapes. The finest stock farm in the entire South is Belle Meade. Some of the most thoroughbred horses in the world can claim Belle Meade as their home. Vanderbilt University endowed with one million of dollars by the Vanderbilts, is located in this city. It opened in 1875 and has flourished ever since. This already great city received a short time ago a substantial donation from that great philanthropist, Andrew Carnegie, when he gave $100,000 for a public library. The Hermitage, which is the old home of Andrew Jackson, is the great spot about which cluster so many memories of the stern old President. Two monuments to Presidents of the State add much to the beauty and sacredness of the capitol grounds of Tennessee, one to the memory of Andrew Jackson, and another to the blessed name of James K. Polk. Tennessee is a great State. Her cities are vast hives of industry; her country sides are the treasures from which their almost unbounded resources are drawn; her streams musical; her valleys tranquil; her mountains covered with flocks and herds; her rulers honest and her people loving because their homes are happy and their hearthstones bright. God bless Tennessee and her people!

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18, 1901.
Mr. Roosevelt has been captured by the trusts and has declared against any revision of the tariff by this Congress. He has been warned by such republicans from the Middle West as ex Gov. Washburn, of Minnesota, who told him that the republican sentiment of that section was in favor of a revision of the tariff along the lines proposed by Representative Babcock, of Wis., and that it will be necessary for him to do something against the trusts or there will be trouble in the party. He is now casting around for some bluff that will make the administration appear to be against the trusts without really injuring them. One result of that casting around may be a little anti-trust buncombe in his message to Congress; another may be a spasm of anti-trust activity in the Department of Justice, which may prosecute a trust or two under the Sherman law. But none of these will fool the intelligent men, who know that if Mr. Roosevelt wanted to hit the trusts he could easily have done so by favoring tariff revision.

Senator Vest headed off the story that his improved health had caused him to change his mind about not being a candidate for reelection as soon as he reached Washington, by declaring in the most positive terms that he intended to retire from public life at the close of his present term in the Senate. Mr. Vest as usual, has clear and vigorous ideas as to what will and will not be done by the republican majority in Congress. He thinks it reasonably certain that the Ship subsidy bill will go through; also some sort of a measure to protect the President and other officials from anarchists, and that some of the reciprocity treaties before the Senate will be ratified. The rest will depend largely upon the recommendations of Mr. Roosevelt's message, in Mr. Vest's opinion. He doesn't believe there will be any tariff legislation of importance, and on the question of anti-trust legislation was very positive that nothing would be done. He said: "There may be some pretense of attacking the trusts, but it will amount to nothing. The course of the republican party in the first session of the last Congress shows that they do not propose to have any conflict with the trusts if they can possibly avoid it. The House of Representatives at this session passed a bill with only one dissenting vote, and he was a republican, making more stringent the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust act. It came over to the Senate about three weeks before the end of the session, and the Democrats attempted to take it up and discuss it at once. The Republicans, by a party vote, referred the bill to the Judiciary Committee, with a statement by Mr. Lodge and others, that it would be taken up at the beginning of the next session, and promptly disposed of. When the next session came they refused to touch it, and when the Democrats attempted to have the bill reported from the Judiciary Committee to the Senate, the Republicans voted down the motion. They were afraid to take up the bill before the election, because it would have excited the opposition of the trusts in the country, and they could not have raised their trust campaign funds. After the election the Republicans were utterly indifferent as to what any one might say, and refused to consider the matter at all."

"It is to laugh." The most humorous, or certainly one of the most humorous announcements ever made by any administration is that of the present administration saying that political and social influence will not count in making promotions in the army and navy and the civil service. As though that were not humorous enough, it was added that attempts on the part of politicians and social dignitaries to influence the promotion of their friends in the public service would probably do them more harm than good, and that nothing but merit, as shown by official records, would determine promotions in the public service. If there is any Senator or Representative who takes this announcement seriously, he hasn't been found. The general impression among them is that, it was made with the hope of frightening off some of the crowd of favor-lunters who are worrying the life out of Mr. Roosevelt. Perhaps there will be a time when political and social influence will not knock down official persimmons in Washington, but none of us will live to see it.

The formers of the Western Railroad trust, which makes the big steel trust look insignificant by comparison, want Senator Elkins, of West Va., who is a railroad magnate, for chairman of the Senate Committee on Inter-state Commerce, which will handle bills proposing checks on the railroad trust by amending the Inter-state Commerce law, and they are somewhat alarmed by the apparent reluctance of Senator Cullom to give up that chairmanship for the head of the committee on Foreign Relations. Some time ago Cullom was hot after the latter, but his arder has cooled since he has found out that the chances are very decidedly against the ratification of most of the reciprocity treaties. He is now chairman of the Commerce Committee and he can keep it, if he doesn't go to the head of the Foreign Committee.

Some time ago Cullom was hot after the latter, but his arder has cooled since he has found out that the chances are very decidedly against the ratification of most of the reciprocity treaties. He is now chairman of the Commerce Committee and he can keep it, if he doesn't go to the head of the Foreign Committee.

Senator Vest headed off the story that his improved health had caused him to change his mind about not being a candidate for reelection as soon as he reached Washington, by declaring in the most positive terms that he intended to retire from public life at the close of his present term in the Senate. Mr. Vest as usual, has clear and vigorous ideas as to what will and will not be done by the republican majority in Congress. He thinks it reasonably certain that the Ship subsidy bill will go through; also some sort of a measure to protect the President and other officials from anarchists, and that some of the reciprocity treaties before the Senate will be ratified. The rest will depend largely upon the recommendations of Mr. Roosevelt's message, in Mr. Vest's opinion. He doesn't believe there will be any tariff legislation of importance, and on the question of anti-trust legislation was very positive that nothing would be done. He said: "There may be some pretense of attacking the trusts, but it will amount to nothing. The course of the republican party in the first session of the last Congress shows that they do not propose to have any conflict with the trusts if they can possibly avoid it. The House of Representatives at this session passed a bill with only one dissenting vote, and he was a republican, making more stringent the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust act. It came over to the Senate about three weeks before the end of the session, and the Democrats attempted to take it up and discuss it at once. The Republicans, by a party vote, referred the bill to the Judiciary Committee, with a statement by Mr. Lodge and others, that it would be taken up at the beginning of the next session, and promptly disposed of. When the next session came they refused to touch it, and when the Democrats attempted to have the bill reported from the Judiciary Committee to the Senate, the Republicans voted down the motion. They were afraid to take up the bill before the election, because it would have excited the opposition of the trusts in the country, and they could not have raised their trust campaign funds. After the election the Republicans were utterly indifferent as to what any one might say, and refused to consider the matter at all."

"It is to laugh." The most humorous, or certainly one of the most humorous announcements ever made by any administration is that of the present administration saying that political and social influence will not count in making promotions in the army and navy and the civil service. As though that were not humorous enough, it was added that attempts on the part of politicians and social dignitaries to influence the promotion of their friends in the public service would probably do them more harm than good, and that nothing but merit, as shown by official records, would determine promotions in the public service. If there is any Senator or Representative who takes this announcement seriously, he hasn't been found. The general impression among them is that, it was made with the hope of frightening off some of the crowd of favor-lunters who are worrying the life out of Mr. Roosevelt. Perhaps there will be a time when political and social influence will not knock down official persimmons in Washington, but none of us will live to see it.

The formers of the Western Railroad trust, which makes the big steel trust look insignificant by comparison, want Senator Elkins, of West Va., who is a railroad magnate, for chairman of the Senate Committee on Inter-state Commerce, which will handle bills proposing checks on the railroad trust by amending the Inter-state Commerce law, and they are somewhat alarmed by the apparent reluctance of Senator Cullom to give up that chairmanship for the head of the committee on Foreign Relations. Some time ago Cullom was hot after the latter, but his arder has cooled since he has found out that the chances are very decidedly against the ratification of most of the reciprocity treaties. He is now chairman of the Commerce Committee and he can keep it, if he doesn't go to the head of the Foreign Committee.

ATTORNEY GENERAL Robert J. Breckenridge has, since he was ousted from the Attorney General's office, made known to a few close friends, his intentions of becoming a candidate for governor two years hence to succeed Gov. Beckham. Most any thing you want in Kentucky, is your General, as would have been the case with W. S. Taylor had he pursued the same course.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has restored to the Civil Service department 1600 War department jobs, which President McKinley had put on the "pie counter." "Teddy" has his way of doing things, and that is the way he is pretty apt to do them.

ATTORNEY GENERAL Robert J. Breckenridge must step down and out says the Court of Appeals and turn the keys of that office over to Mr. Clifton J. Pratt, the Republican claimant. When the contest cases, which grew out of the election of 1899, were decided in favor of the Democratic contestants by the Franklin Circuit Court, General Pratt did not appeal, as did the other Republicans, but waited until after the election of Judge O'Rear, which made the Court of Appeals Republican and then made his appeal. The opinion of the Court was handed down by Justice Guffey and concurred in by Judges Durelle, Burnam and O'Rear, while a dissenting opinion was handed down by Judge Hobson, concurred in by Chief Justice Paynter and Judge White. That the decision is made purely from a bias, political stand-point, is shown, by a former ruling of the Court, in which it stood, with Judge Hazelrig on the bench instead of Judge O'Rear, six to one in favor of the Democratic contestants, with Judges Guffey and Burnam concurring in the majority report. This decision of the Court of Appeals will be filed at the January term of the Franklin Circuit Court, at which time General Breckenridge will retire and Mr. Pratt will assume the duties of the office. Not only do two of the Judges reverse themselves, but this decision reverses four of the most important cases of this character decided by the court in the last year or two, the George Prison Commission case, holding the Prison Commission statute legal, the case of Purnell against Mann, from Bourbon county, holding the Geobell election law constitutional; the Poyntz-Shackelford case, holding that the State Election Commissioners were a legal body, and the Coulter-Sweeney case, giving the State offices to the Democratic contestants, as decided by the State Contest Board. The decision reverses interpretations given statutes for the last half century. The effect of it is beyond estimation. Under it, it is doubtful whether the General Assembly has the power to, at its coming session, elect two members of the State Prison Commission to succeed the two retiring officials.

SENATOR-ELECT Geo. T. Farris, of Lancaster, has announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic caucus nomination for presiding officer of that body. Here is hoping that the honored Senator from the Eighteenth Senatorial district may win with hands down and have bestowed upon him this honor as a reward for the splendid service done, during that memorable session of 1900 and for the gallant victory he has just won, in being re-elected by a majority of 425 in a district, which only one year ago, gave a Republican majority of nearly 1000.

Getting Thin

is all right, if you are too fat; and all wrong, if too thin already. Fat, enough for your habit, is healthy; a little more, or less, is no great harm. Too fat, consult a doctor; too thin, persistently thin, no matter what cause, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

There are many causes of getting too thin; they all come under these two heads: over-work and under-digestion.

Stop over-work, if you can; but, whether you can or not, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, to balance yourself with your work. You can't live on it—true—but, by it, you can. There's a limit, however; you'll pay for it.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the readiest cure for "can't eat," unless it comes of your doing no work—you can't long be well and strong, without some sort of activity.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE Chemists, 409 Pearl Street, New York. 50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

SPREADS LIKE WILDFIRE.
When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Here, a leading druggist, of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years." You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, rundown man or woman. Price 50 cents. Sold by all druggists.

Your Hair

"Two years ago my hair was falling out badly. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and soon my hair stopped coming out." Miss Minnie Hoover, Paris, Ill.

Perhaps your mother had thin hair, but that is no reason why you must go through life with half-starved hair. If you want long, thick hair, feed it with Ayer's Hair Vigor, and make it rich, dark, and heavy.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists. If your druggist cannot supply you, send us our dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

WOMAN'S RELIEF

A really healthy woman has little pain or discomfort at the menstrual period. No woman needs to have any. Wine of Cardui will quickly relieve those smarting menstrual pains and the dragging head, back and side aches caused by falling of the womb and irregular menses.

WINE OF CARDUI

has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 women who suffered every month. It makes the menstrual organs strong and healthy. It is the provision made by Nature to give women relief from the terrible aches and pains which blight so many homes.

GREENWOOD, LA., Oct. 14, 1900. I have been very sick for some time. I was taken with a severe pain in my side and could not get any relief until I tried a bottle of Wine of Cardui. Before I had taken all of it I was relieved. I feel it my duty to say that you have a wonderful medicine.

R. L. Porter, clerk for Chenault & Co., at Orlando, and one of the nicest young men in the county, spent Wednesday night with Dr. M. Pennington.

W. H. Albright was here from Brodhead Wednesday, and ordered the Signal sent to his son, Jop, who belongs to the Regular army and stationed at Fort Howard, M. D.

Mrs. H. C. Gentry returned from Lebanon Junction Sunday, where she was called two weeks ago, on account of the serious illness of her son, Tyree. She reports him much improved.

Miss Cecil Nield will give a luncheon at Miss Jennie C. Benedict's today, followed by a box party at McCauley's in honor of Misses Ethel and Julia Dixon, of Baltimore.—Wednesday's Courier-Journal.

LOCALS

MAGISTRATE.—Mr. J. Logan Renner has been appointed Magistrate in the 3rd Magistral district to succeed J. M. Ballard resigned.

EQUALIZATION BOARD.—The town Board of Trustees met Wednesday and appointed Willis Griffin, Jonas McKenzie and W. F. McClary as a Board of Equalization.

Prof. Hale, impersonator and reciter, who is well known to the people of Mt. Vernon by his recitals given heretofore, will be at the College Chapel next Tuesday night week, Dec. 3rd.

We again call attention to the fact that Lexington and Central Kentucky points, as well as Jellico, Barbourville, Manchester and intermediate points can be reached over the Independent Telephone line.

DOING WELL.—Judge Williams, while in Louisville a few days ago, saw Dr. Harry Weber, a former Rockcastle boy, who is handsomely located in the Courier-Journal building, and is getting a splendid practice.

A Christmas tree for the benefit of the young folks says some, but usually more for the benefit of the older people than for the little folks, will be had in the Christian church on the night of Christmas Eve, so says the committee. The Baptist and Presbyterian churches will more than likely follow suit.

FROM OREGON.—Mr. George King, of North Powder, Oregon, a brother of Mrs. A. Pennington, sent George Pennington a few days since, a nice mess of bear meat, also some of the wool taken from the animal. On his return from the Philippines, George stopped at North Powder, and spent several days hunting with his uncle.

Contracts were signed Tuesday, whereby the Pine Hill coal mines, which are now being operated by Longmire and Hightower, under a lease from C. Metesser, will, on January 1st 1902, be turned over to J. A. August, owner of the property, who will in turn again place C. Metesser in charge, under terms of the original lease.

Thanksgiving services will be held at the Presbyterian church.

The Chataqua club met with Misses Susie and Annie Thompson Tuesday night. The meeting next Tuesday night will be held with Mrs. C. C. Williams.

MARRIED.—John Lewis, colored, of Grays, and Ida Modell, daughter of Fount Modell, a highly respected colored citizen of our town, were married Wednesday night.

We are much indebted to Maaschal J. J. Clancy and "Parson" Hocker for furnishing us with a report from Livingston this week, which was sent by telephone last night, our regular correspondent failing to show up.

STRUCK GAS.—The Mt. Sterling Oil and Gas Co., which is boring for oil on Copper Creek, has struck gas, of a sufficient quantity to run an engine, although they have gone down only a few hundred feet. They are confident a nice flow of oil will be found.

Robert Hicks, son of Mr. Larkin Hicks, of Brodhead, and Miss Lela the eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Pike will be married Sunday. The intended groom accompanied by Judge Granville Owens, came up Wednesday and secured the license.

AT LONDON.—The Federal court, of the new Eastern Kentucky district, of which the Hon. J. M. Cochran is judge, and Judge J. H. Tinsley, of Barbourville, is attorney, will convene at London next Monday. The court-house, where the sessions will be held, is being over hauled and the hotels are making preparations to entertain a large number of people, as one of the largest crowds ever assembled in the town of London, is expected there during the court.

Against Christmas is over and the young bloods have fired all the big cannon crackers, they can possibly get money to buy, (which will be an ample sufficiency) and when two or three horses are crippled and a person or two killed while crossing some of the culprits, which should have been condemned weeks ago, may be a number of our citizens will stop fighting the corporation, and on the other hand assist in getting it up in good working order that some much needed improvements may be made.

BROUGHT SUIT.—Mrs. Sallie Adams and children, have through their attorney C. C. Williams, brought suit against Sim Dowell, of Lincoln county, to regain a tract of 400 acres of land in that county, which Dowell is holding under a tax sale. Dowell was placed on the farm several years ago by Dave and Smith Adams, the owners, with the understanding that he should keep it up, pay taxes and have what he could make, but after two or three years he allowed the farm to sell for about $9 taxes and bid it in himself.

There are booms and boomers. Rockcastle is not expecting one, but we are here to tell our friends that all indications point to a successful issue in the oil business in addition to the various enterprises already doing good work and bringing in money to our people. Flat Lick, Pulaski county, has struck oil, Knox county has several paying wells. Our county is between these points and there is no earthly reason why the drills now going down won't soon strike a flow of the fluid. Madison county capitalists will begin drilling near Berea, at an early date. Other companies are arranging to go to work with drills in this county.

'CAN'T Afford TO Paint'

THE man who says that, forgets that painting properly done is economy, and the fact is he can't afford NOT to paint. HOW often you require to paint is largely dependent upon the paint you use.

The Sherman-Williams Paints

out last others. They are the most economical paints you can use, because they cover most and wear longest. Add to this their good appearance, and you have perfect paints—THE SHERMAN-WILLIAMS PAINTS.

They are made for many different kinds of painting. Whatever it is you want to paint—a house, or anything in or out of the house—we make the right paint for that particular purpose—not one slap-dash mixture for all.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?
ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE
by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.
HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.
Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.
Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.
